

Join us at our 4th Annual Summer Institute

Making the Connections with All Students: Engaging Special Populations

July 18-20, 2018
The Desmond Hotel
Albany, New York

Join colleagues from across the state as we converge in Albany for a three day learning experience. The Institute will focus on learning how to engage all students in powerful social studies learning.

Specific topics to include:

Teaching social studies to English Language Learners and Students With Disabilities, K-12
Preparing students for the Framework Global History and Geography Exam
Introduction to the new United States History and Government Exam

Highlighted speakers and sessions:

Donna Merlau and Dan King - NYSED
Greg Ahlquist and Kate Hesla- K-8 Building Assessments & Redesigning Inquiries
April Francis and Salamah Mullen - Taking Informed Action collaborating with Library Media Specialist
David Mumper - Hudson Valley Regional Bilingual Education Resource Network (RBERN)

Registration is open now!

Register here: <http://nycss.org/nycss-2018-summer-institute/>

Registration deadline: June 30, 2018.

Member Registration: $225.00

Non-Member Registration $260.00

Special hotel rate at the Desmond Hotel $109.00 per night. Use the code "NYSCSS Summer Institute" when you reserve your hotel room directly with the hotel.

Questions about the Summer Institute? Email paul.gold@nycss.org
Questions about purchase orders, membership, and payment process? Email treasurer@nycss.org
Register now! See you in July at the Desmond Hotel!